SKIN CARE EVENT PLAYBOOK

YOUNG LIVING DAY

Why host an event

Hosting an event is one of the easiest and most authentic ways to share the lifestyle you love and introduce others to Young Living.

When people can touch, smell, experience and fall in love with products for themselves, conversations happen naturally. An in-person skin care experience creates space for those conversations to grow into genuine connection.

As a host, you'll lead the way—inviting guests, creating a welcoming space and guiding conversations that inspire action. Use this guide to make hosting a YL Day event, or any skin care event, easier than ever! It's filled with tips for everything from inviting and following up to printable DIYs.

CULTIVATE COMMUNITY

Use this event to strengthen connections, make new friends, build a sense of community and belonging, and turn your Young Living circle into a thriving, supportive squad.

BUILD EXCITEMENT

Bring the energy! Get your team pumped, explore new products, and create buzz that will last long after the event is over.

SHOW OFF NEW PRODUCTS

Live events let you spotlight products and demonstrate their benefits. One of the best ways to enhance your team's experience is by providing an opportunity to see, touch, feel, or taste a product.

LEAD AND INSPIRE OTHERS

Inspire your team and show them how to lead by example. Illustrate how they can use in-person events to create community and enroll new prospects—all while celebrating wellness together.*

*The Brand Partner sales earnings disclosed are potential gross earnings and not net of other business expenses and not necessarily representative of the actual income, if any, that a Brand Partner can or will earn through the Young Living Sales Compensation Plan. The golden rules of hosting

Six simple tips for creating a fabulous skin care event

YOU DON'T NEED TO BE A SKIN CARE EXPERT.

You don't need perfect skin, a perfectly decorated home, or every ingredient memorized. Your job isn't to lecture—it's to create a welcoming space, guide the experience, and help guests discover what works for them.

REMEMBER: People aren't looking for perfection. They're looking for connection.

1 KEEP IT SIMPLE.

You don't need to do everything in this guide. Choose what fits your event and your personality. A skin care experience, signature mocktail, diffuser blend, and a few thoughtful touches are more than enough.

2 CREATE AN EXPERIENCE, NOT A PRESENTATION.

Skin care is meant to be experienced. Let guests touch, smell, apply, and enjoy the products. The luxurious foam of a cleanser or silky feel of a moisturizer can say more than a five-minute explanation ever could.

3 BE A HOST FIRST.

Greet guests at the door. Offer them a drink. Make introductions. Help everyone feel comfortable before talking about products. Connection comes first; skin care comes second.

4 ASK MORE. TALK LESS.

You don't need to have all the answers. Start conversations with questions:

"What's your current skin care routine?"

"What would you love to improve about your skin?"

"Which product surprised you most?"

Listen, then help guests explore products that fit what they're looking for.

5 TELL STORIES, NOT SPEECHES.

Skip the long product pitch. Share what you love, something you learned, or what surprised you about a product. If you'd like more structure, use the YL Day Host PowerPoint as a resource—but make the experience your own.

6 GIVE GUESTS CHOICES.

Skin care isn't one size fits all. Offer a full facial experience for guests who want to remove their makeup and a hand facial for those who don't. Keep product sampling hygienic with fresh applicators, cotton rounds, and washcloths for each guest.

Take photos during the event.

Use #YLDAY and share your event for a chance to be featured on our Instagram page.

Host secret:

The best events aren't the most elaborate—they're the ones where people feel comfortable, cared for, and excited to participate. Relax and have fun, and your guests will too.

PLANNING YOUR EVENT IN 3, 2, 1!

Countdown to your event

Here's your week-by-week guide to stay on track for an unforgettable skin care experience.

3 weeks out:

- Lock it in. Confirm your event date, time, and location. Choose a time that works well for the people you want to invite, then get it on the calendar!
- Find your space. Choose somewhere comfortable where guests can mingle and experience the products. Your living room or kitchen is perfect, but you can also consider a community centre, clubhouse, meeting room, local studio, or other gathering space.
- Pick your vibe. Think about the experience you want to create. Relaxing spa night? Girls' night? Brunch? Open house? Educational skin care workshop? Your theme can guide everything from your invitations and refreshments to your diffuser blend and activities. Need inspiration? Check out the ideas below.
- Make your list. Think beyond your usual circle. Invite Brand Partners, customers, prospects, friends, neighbours, coworkers, family members—and anyone who loves skin care, beauty, wellness, or a good girls' night. This is an opportunity to strengthen relationships and welcome new people into your community.
- Start inviting. Begin with personal invitations, then use texts, social posts, group messages, or email to spread the word. A personal invitation goes a long way, so let people know why you thought of them.

Host secret:

Don't wait until everything is perfect to start inviting. Get your event on people's calendars first—you can fill in the fun details later.

CHOOSE YOUR THEME

MAKE IT FEEL LIKE YOU.

Whether you're inviting four close friends or forty guests, the best event is one that fits your personality, your space, and your guests.

And skin care gives you plenty of ways to make it fun! Start with one simple idea, then build your experience around it.

SPA NIGHT

Turn your space into a relaxing retreat with warm towels, soft music, spa-inspired diffuser blends, beauty mocktails, and a guided skin care ritual.

TRY: Full facials + warm towels + a relaxing DIY

BRUNCH & BEAUTY

Pair fresh flowers, fruit, pastries, and NingXia Red® mocktails with skin care demonstrations and a morning skin care ritual.

TRY: Grazing board + skin care stations + DIY Morning Glow roll-on

OPEN HOUSE FACIAL BAR

Let guests drop in during a set window and move through skin care stations at their own pace. It's relaxed, flexible, and especially helpful for larger groups.

TRY: Product stations + hand demonstrations + a DIY beauty bar

GLOW & GATHER

Make it a girls' night! Think skin care, mini facials, mocktails, a grazing board, music, and plenty of time to laugh and connect.

TRY: Guided facial + mocktail bar + selfie station

PUMPKINS & PAMPERING

Give your event a cozy fall twist with seasonal décor, botanical skin care, fall diffuser blends, and NingXia Red mocktails.

TRY: Cozy diffuser blend + spa experience + fall-inspired refreshments

More ways to glow

FACIALS & FRIENDS

Keep it casual with mini facials, snacks, and plenty of time to catch up.

SIP & GLOW

Pair a guided skin care ritual with a NingXia Red mocktail tasting.

THE GLOW BAR

Create interactive stations where guests can discover, touch, and try the collection.

BOTANICAL BEAUTY BAR

Spotlight botanicals, essential oils, ingredient stories, and the Young Living difference.

SIPS & SKIN CARE

A relaxed evening of skin care demonstrations, mocktails, and conversation.

SELF-CARE SUNDAY

Combine skin care, aromatherapy, relaxing DIYs, and intentional time to recharge.

GLOW FROM THE INSIDE OUT

Pair your skin care experience with NingXia Red and wellness-inspired refreshments.

GLOW UP GIRLS' NIGHT

Turn up the music, bring out the snacks, and make trying skin care feel like a night out with your best friends.

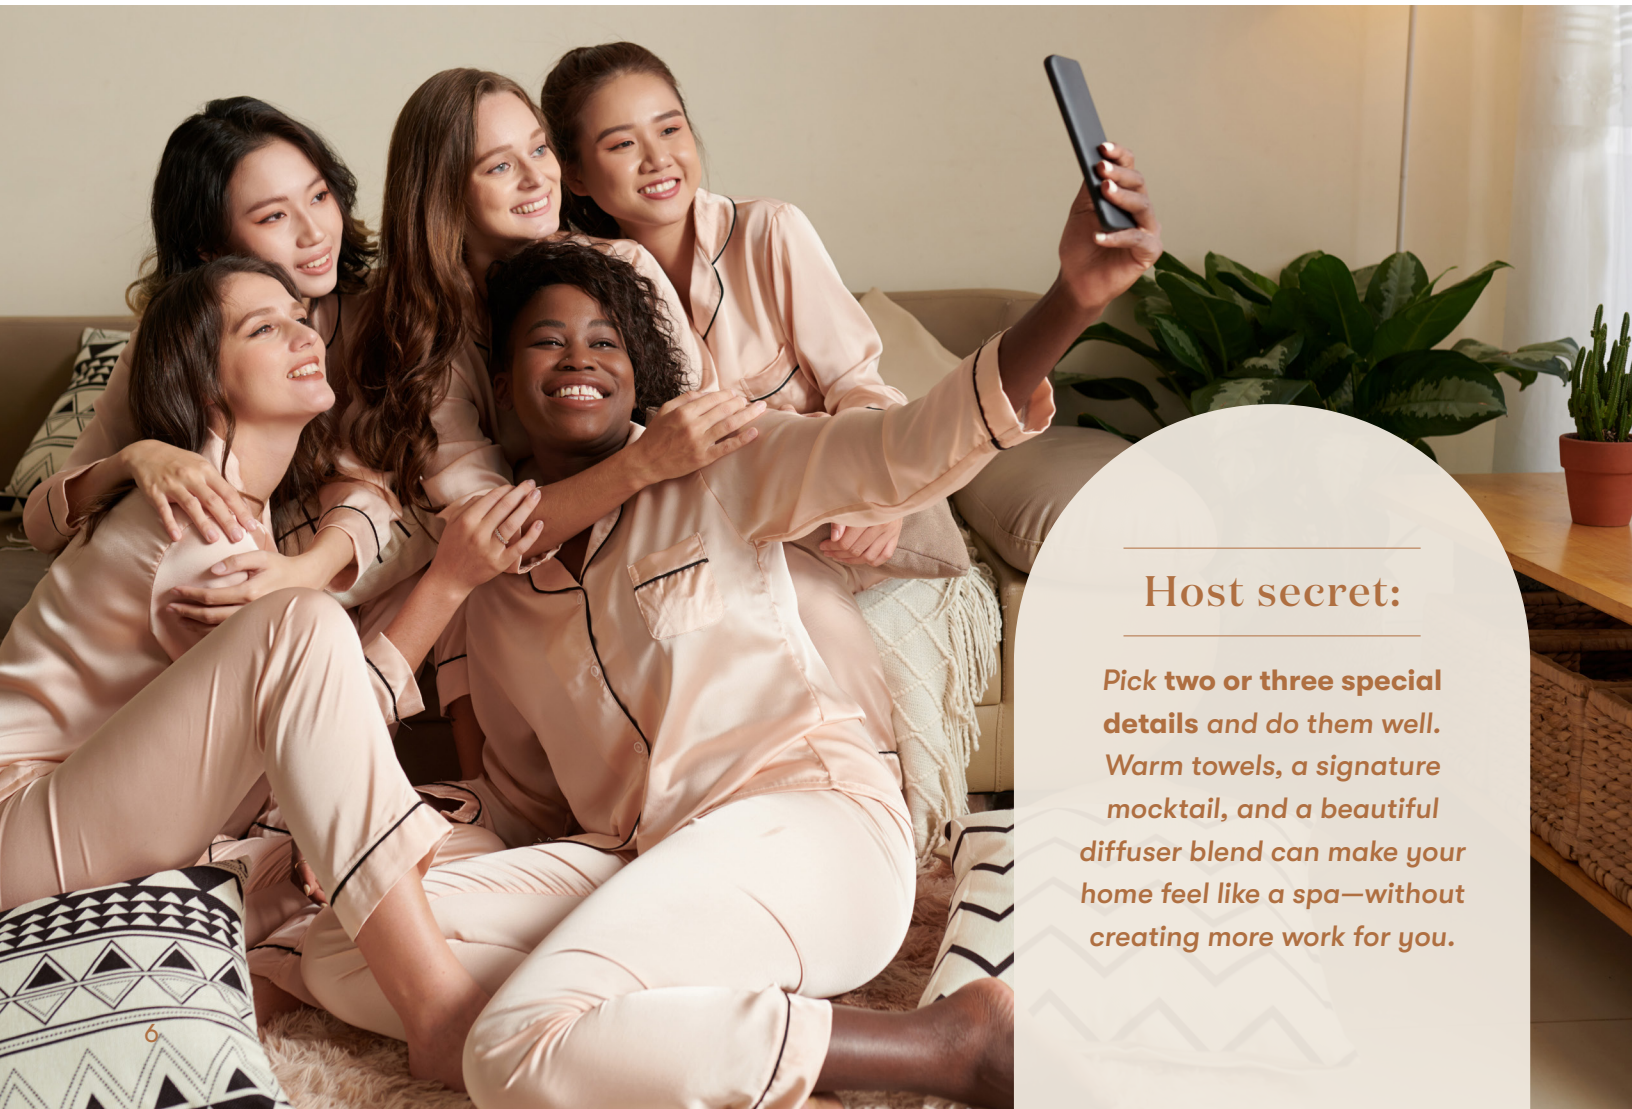
CREATE THE EXPERIENCE

Once you choose your theme, carry it through a few simple details:

INVITATIONS + MUSIC + REFRESHMENTS

+ DÉCOR + DIFFUSER BLEND + ACTIVITIES

You don't need to go overboard. A few thoughtful touches can transform an ordinary gathering into an experience your guests will remember.



Host secret:

Pick two or three special details and do them well. Warm towels, a signature mocktail, and a beautiful diffuser blend can make your home feel like a spa—without creating more work for you.

COUNTDOWN TO YOUR EVENT

Spread the word

2 weeks out:

START INVITING!

Your event is planned—now it's time to fill the room! Share the details with friends, customers, prospects, and Brand Partners through personal texts, social messages, emails, or phone calls.

The best invitations feel personal, not perfect. Tell them why you thought of them, give them a glimpse of what they'll experience, and let your excitement do the rest.

For prospects and Customers:

INVITE 1: GIRLS' NIGHT

> Hey [Name]! I'm hosting a skin care night on [date], and I immediately thought of you! We're going to try Young Living's brand-new skin care collection, do mini facials, sip mocktails, and have a fun girls' night. I'd love for you to come relax and glow with us. Are you free?

INVITE 2: SKIN CARE LOVER

> Hey [Name]! I know you love skin care, so I had to invite you to this! I'm hosting a skin care experience on [date] where we'll be among the first to try Young Living's new skin care collection. We'll get hands-on with the products, learn some simple skin care tips, and enjoy a little self-care together. Want to come?

INVITE 3: SELF-CARE NIGHT

> Hi [Name]! When was the last time you had an excuse to slow down and pamper yourself? I'm hosting a little spa night on [date] with skin care, mocktails, and some of my favourite people. No pressure and no skin care expertise required—just come as you are and enjoy the night with us. I'd love to save you a spot!

Inviting tip

When inviting someone new, make it personal and heartfelt. Instead of sending the same message to everyone, add one sentence about why you thought of them. People want to feel personally invited—not added to a list.

For brand partners or those interested in the business:

LET THEM SEE SHARING IN ACTION.

Your YL Day event isn't only an opportunity to introduce new products. It's also a simple way to show someone what building a Young Living business can look like: bringing people together, creating an experience, sharing products you love, and building relationships.

You don't need to give them a business presentation. Invite them to experience it for themselves.

INVITE 1: COME SEE HOW I SHARE

> Hey [Name]! I'm hosting a YL Day skin care event on [date], and I'd love for you to come—not only to try the new products, but to see how simple it can be to share Young Living in person. We'll have skin care, mini facials, mocktails, and lots of fun. If you've ever been curious about growing your Young Living business, I think this will give you some great ideas. Want to join me?

INVITE 2: FOR AN EXISTING BRAND PARTNER

> Hi [Name]! I'm hosting a skin care event for YL Day, and I'd love to have you there. I'm going to walk guests through the new skin care collection and create a really simple hands-on experience. Come experience it with me, take notes, and steal any ideas you love for your own event! This new skin care launch gives us such a natural reason to reconnect, invite, and share.

INVITE 3: FOR SOMEONE CURIOUS ABOUT THE BUSINESS

> Hey [Name]! I've always thought you'd be great at what I do, and I'd love to show you what it actually looks like. I'm hosting a skin care event on [date] where I'll bring friends together, let them experience the new products, and share something I genuinely love. Come hang out with us and see it in action. If it sparks your curiosity, we can talk more afterward—no pressure at all.

Business-building tip

Show, don't sell. An event gives someone the opportunity to see the Young Living business in action. Let them experience the community, products, and conversations first. You can always follow up afterward and ask, "Could you see yourself doing something like this?"

*The Brand Partner sales earnings disclosed are potential gross earnings and not net of other business expenses and not necessarily representative of the actual income, if any, that a Brand Partner can or will earn through the Young Living Sales Compensation Plan. A Brand Partner's earnings will depend on individual diligence, work effort, sales skill and market conditions. Young Living does not guarantee any income or rank success. See the Statement of Typical Participant Earnings for detailed earnings information per rank.

2 weeks out:

BUILD THE BUZZ

- Add a personal touch. Follow up your invites with a text, call, or quick voice memo. Let them know you'd love it if they were there.
- Share sneak peeks. Post your skin care routine, a beauty DIY or supply haul, or something you're excited about. Give your guests something to look forward to.
- Plan your space. Picture your setup. Where will people sit, mingle, and try products? Jot down ideas for how you'll display items.
- Check your supply list. Make sure you know what you'll need: snacks, NingXia Red® bar ingredients, DIY supplies, giveaways, and test products.
- Record who's coming. Keep track of who's coming or not. Use the new YL events platform to remind your registered guests of the events. Want to create urgency? Provide a date to RSVP or purchase a ticket (if applicable). If you're hosting a larger event, we recommend creating a link to help capture attendee information.
- Get your supplies. Look over the tips-and-tricks sheet and make sure you have everything you need.

1 week out:

FINAL PREP MODE

- Confirm RSVPs. Reach out to anyone who hasn't replied yet. A friendly "I'd love to see you there!" can go a long way. Use the Young Living events platform to remind guests.
- Order or gather supplies. Make sure everything arrives or gets picked up in time, so you're not scrambling.
- Create your event flow. Do a quick walkthrough of your venue, so you know how to set up seating, display tables, and product experiences.
- Prep your materials. Print wish lists, gather giveaways, and get your diffuser blends or recipes ready.

FINAL DAYS:

SHINE AND SHOW UP

- Send a group reminder. Drop a fun reminder 1–2 days before the event. A quick "Can't wait to see you Saturday!" keeps it top of mind.
- Follow up individually. Check in with each of your confirmed guests a day or two before the event. It never hurts to send out an additional reminder the day of.
- Do a practice run. Test your diffuser blend, set up your table, or walk through your DIY, so you feel confident.
- Pack your essentials. Products, diffusers, wish lists, sign-in sheets, name tags, giveaways, and of course...your excitement!
- Take a deep breath. You've done the work—now get ready to welcome your guests, build community, and have fun!

Follow this countdown, and you'll walk into your skin care event feeling organized, energized, and ready to inspire!

During your event:

side note

While we've given you some general ideas, you know the vibe of your team and the event you're hosting. Choose what resonates and flows seamlessly with the atmosphere you want to create.

Above all, have fun and be yourself!

The skin care experience

HERE ARE SOME SKIN CARE EVENT FLOW AND AGENDA EXAMPLES:

During your event:

THE HEART OF YOUR EVENT.

You want your guests to experience the skin care collection for themselves. This is where products come to life—not through a presentation, but through touch, texture, aroma, and results.

There are many different ways for your guests to experience skin care; here are two easy options depending on your guests and your space.

Option 1: FULL FACIAL EXPERIENCE

Perfect for smaller groups who don't mind removing makeup.

Guests move through each skin care step together while you guide the experience.

Option 2: HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE

Perfect for open houses, larger groups, or guests wearing makeup.

Guests experience every texture and benefit using the backs of their hands.

Both experiences are equally effective and help guests understand how each product feels, layers, and performs.

Create the experience

- Place products in the order they'll be used.
- Offer mirrors.
- Provide headbands.
- Have warm washcloths ready.
- Play relaxing music.
- Diffuse peaceful essential oil scents—try the spa diffuser blends in this book!
- Encourage guests to slow down and enjoy every step.

Party planning tip

Invite guests to turn off their phones for just a few minutes. Self-care begins when we allow ourselves to be fully present.

During your event:

The guided facial experience

OPTION 1

Invite guests to move through each product together. Pause between steps and allow everyone to experience the textures, aromas, and feel of each formula.

Before you start, have each participant take the skin care quiz on the following page to determine what skin type they have and what products they should use.

STEP 1

Cleanse

Choose the cleanser that best fits your skin.

Antioxidant Foaming Cleanser

Perfect for normal, dry, or mature-looking skin—or anytime skin needs extra TLC.

Pore Cleansing Gel

Ideal for oily or combination skin—or anytime skin needs a deeper cleanse.

Massage gently for about 1 minute.

Remove with a warm washcloth.

Pause.

Ask:

"How does your skin feel?"

Notice the difference.

Skin should feel clean, soft, and comfortable—not tight.

Try doing this by a sink or in a bathroom.

STEP 2

Exfoliating Toner

Sweep gently across the face using a cotton round.

Explain that this toner is designed to gently exfoliate while supporting hydration and the skin's moisture barrier—so your skin won't feel tight or overdried.

STEP 3

Collagen Peptide Serum

Gently press 1 dropper of serum into the skin. Allow it to absorb before continuing.

STEP 4

Brightening Eye Cream

Using your ring finger, gently pat a pea-sized amount under and around your eyes.

Remind guests that less product is more.

STEP 5

Moisturize

Choose the moisturizer that best fits your skin.

Light Moisturizer

For oily or combination skin—or anytime skin needs something lighter.

Anti-Aging Intensive Moisturizer

For normal, dry, or mature-looking skin—or anytime skin needs extra hydration.

Discuss how each addresses different skin care needs while supporting hydration and the skin's moisture barrier.

During your event:

The no-makeup hands-on experience

OPTION 2

Not everyone wants to remove their makeup—and that's perfectly okay. This experience allows guests to feel every texture while comparing hydration, absorption, and finish.

BEGIN WITH CLEAN HANDS.

Invite guests to use one hand as their "before" hand. The other becomes their "after" hand.

Apply products in routine order.

STEP 1

Cleanse

Choose the cleanser that best fits your skin.

Antioxidant Foaming Cleanser

Perfect for normal, dry, or mature-looking skin—or anytime skin needs extra TLC.

STEP 5

Moisturize

Choose the moisturizer that best fits your skin.

Light Moisturizer

For oily or combination skin—or anytime skin needs something lighter.

Anti-Aging Intensive Moisturizer

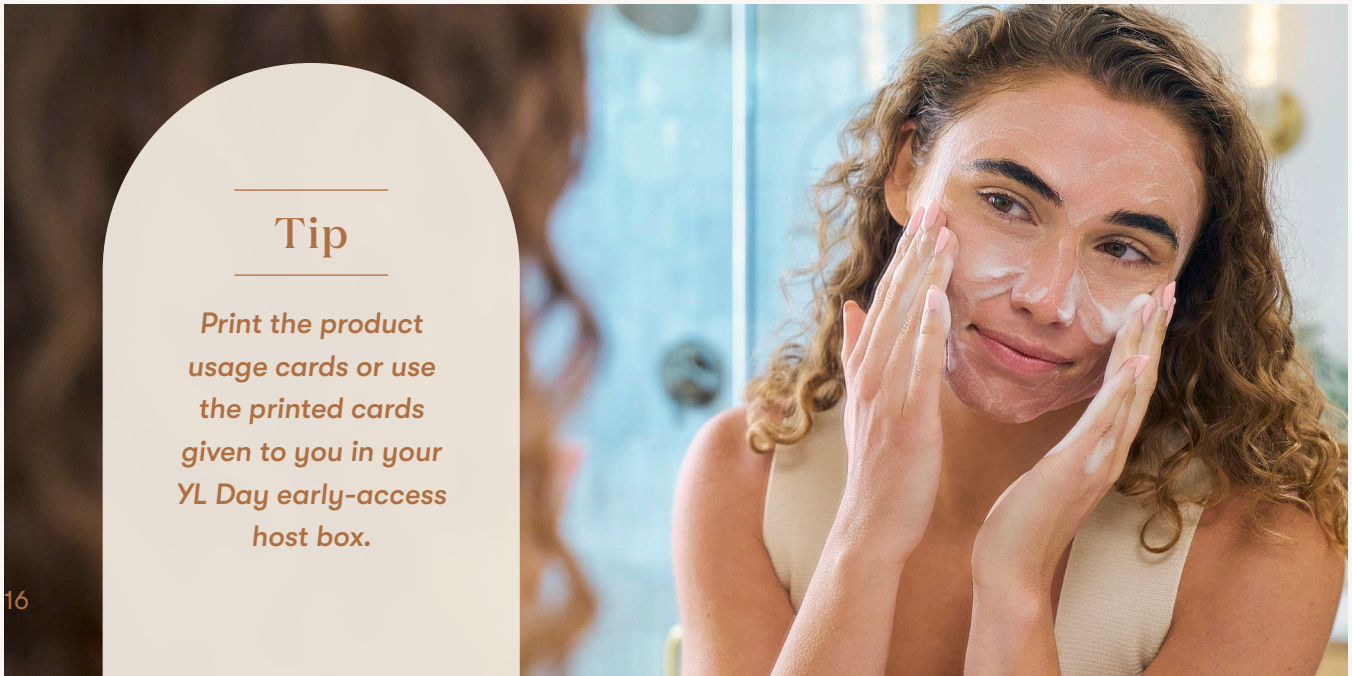
For normal, dry, or mature-looking skin—or anytime skin needs extra hydration.

Encourage guests to compare both hands.

Notice:

- Softness
- Hydration
- Glow
- Smoothness
- Texture
- Absorption

This simple demonstration is incredibly effective and only takes a few minutes.



Tip

Print the product usage cards or use the printed cards given to you in your YL Day early-access host box.

BEAUTY BAR

Make-and-take DIYS

Send your guests home with a little self-care.

One of the most memorable parts of a skin care event is giving guests something they created themselves!

These DIYs extend the experience beyond the event and help guests build beautiful daily rituals using Young Living essential oils. Don't feel like you need to make every DIY. Choose one or two that best fit your event.

DIY SPA BATH SALTS

Reset. Soak. Unwind.
Bring the spa experience home with this simple aromatic bath soak featuring peaceful essential oil scents.

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup Epsom salt
- ½ cup coarse sea salt
- 1 tablespoon carrier oil, such as V-6™ Vegetable Oil Complex
- 6 drops Lavender essential oil
- 4 drops Cedarwood essential oil
- 2 drops Ylang Ylang essential oil
- Glass jar or container

DIRECTIONS:

1. Add Lavender, Cedarwood, and Ylang Ylang essential oils to the carrier oil and stir to combine.
2. Add Epsom salt and sea salt to a mixing bowl.
3. Pour the oil mixture over the salts and stir thoroughly until evenly combined.
4. Spoon into a glass jar and secure the lid.
5. To use, add ½–1 cup to a warm bath, swirl to dissolve, and soak.

HOST TIP

Set out small scoops, jars, labels, and ribbon so guests can package their bath salts and take them home.

SKIN CARE ROLLER

INGREDIENTS:

- 10 drops Tea Tree essential oil
- 10 drops Kunzea essential oil
- 10 drops Lavender essential oil
- 10 ml empty roller bottle

DIRECTIONS:

1. Fill your 10 ml roller ¾ full with jojoba or rosehip carrier oil.
2. Add essential oils and swirl to combine.
3. Apply as needed to reduce the appearance of blemishes.

DIY SUGAR SCRUB

Smooth. Polish. Glow.
Give hands or feet a little extra love with this simple botanical sugar scrub. It's the perfect complement to your skin care ritual—and a reminder that self-care doesn't have to stop at your face.

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup granulated sugar
- ⅓ cup carrier oil, such as V-6™ Vegetable Oil Complex
- 4 drops Lavender essential oil
- 3 drops Frankincense essential oil
- 2 drops Geranium essential oil
- Small glass jar or container

DIRECTIONS:

1. Add sugar to a mixing bowl.
2. In a separate small bowl, combine the carrier oil and essential oils.
3. Pour the oil mixture over the sugar and stir until evenly combined. Add a little more sugar if you prefer a drier scrub.
4. Spoon into a clean jar and secure the lid.
5. To use, gently massage a small amount onto damp hands or feet, then rinse thoroughly with warm water and pat dry.

ESTHETICIAN TIP: Gentle is the goal! There's no need to scrub aggressively. Use light circular motions, then follow with your favourite body oil or moisturizer.

HOST TIP

Turn this into a mini hand spa at your event. Let guests try the scrub at a sink, rinse, then follow with the hands-on skin care experience. It's an easy way to make the event feel extra pampering.

PEACEFUL PILLOW MIST

Mist your pillow with a tranquil aroma that transforms evening into a comforting self-care ritual.

INGREDIENTS:

- ¾ cup distilled water
- 1/8 cup witch hazel
- 8 drops Lavender essential oil
- 6 drops Vanilla oleoresin
- 2 drops Cedarwood essential oil
- 118 ml glass spray bottle

DIRECTIONS:

1. Add witch hazel to spray bottle.
2. Add essential oils and gently swirl to disperse.
3. Top off with distilled water.
4. Secure lid and shake before each use.
5. Lightly mist pillow from 30 centimeters away and let air-dry.

BEAUTY BAR

DIY roll-on station

Create a little self-care spa moment wherever you go.

These roll-ons are perfect for on-the-go self-care, meditation, and everyday wear as a plant-powered alternative to synthetic fragrance.

INSTRUCTIONS

Grab a 10 ml roller bottle.

Choose your favourite blend from the list and add the drops to your bottle.

Fill the rest with carrier oil like V-6™ Vegetable Oil Complex.

Secure the roller top, gently invert to mix, and roll onto wrists, neck, or pulse points.

After your event:

THE EVENING MAY BE OVER,

but the relationship is just beginning.

FOLLOW UP

Within the next 24–48 hours, personally thank each guest for coming. Ask if they have any questions about the products or how to unlock 10 percent off their first order. A thoughtful follow-up is one of the most meaningful things you can do.

FOR GUESTS WHO PURCHASED:

> "Thank you so much for joining me! I loved spending the evening with you. As you begin using your new skin care, I'm here to answer questions and help you build a routine that fits your skin. I can't wait to hear what you think!"

FOR GUESTS WHO DIDN'T PURCHASE:

> "Thank you so much for coming! It was wonderful spending time together. I hope you enjoyed experiencing the new skin care collection. If any questions come up or you'd like help deciding which products might be right for your skin, I'd love to help."

CONTINUE THE CONVERSATION

A week later, check in again.

Ask questions like:

- Which product have you enjoyed the most?
- Have you started your morning routine?
- Has anything surprised you?
- How is your skin feeling?

Remember, your goal isn't only to make a sale. It's to build relationships.

POST PHOTOS

If you're on social platforms like Facebook or Instagram, post photos and stories of the event using #YLDAY. We want to see the fun!

REFLECT

Take a moment to review what went well and what you want to improve for your next event. How can you better connect with your team and create a community? Who can you empower to help others?

You did it.

Whether you hosted four guests or forty, thank you for sharing your time, your home, and your heart.

You created more than a skin care event. You created space for connection, confidence, self-care, meaningful conversations, and for someone to discover products that may become part of their daily ritual for years to come.

The beauty of Young Living has never been found only in our products. It's found in the people who generously share them.

Thank you for being one of those people.

We'll be cheering you on every step of the way!
