

PRODUCT SUMMARY

Slique CitraSlim™ is formulated with naturally derived ingredients to promote healthy weight management when combined with a balanced diet and regular exercise.*

Slique CitraSlim also includes a proprietary citrus extract blend, which some studies suggest may help support the body in burning excess fat when used in conjunction with a healthy weight-management plan.* This polyphenolic mixture of flavonoids offers powerful antioxidants that are touted for their health benefits.* This proprietary blend may also support the release of free fatty acids, which help break down fat.* **

Slique CitraSlim is designed to be used in conjunction with other Young Living Slique products and is the newest product in our Slique in 60 program.*

KEY INGREDIENTS

A proprietary citrus extract blend, utilizing including sweet orange, blood orange, and grapefruit, four citral-dense essential oils: Ocotea, Cassia, Peppermint, and Fennel, cinnamon powder, bitter orange extract, feungreek seed, ocotea leaf extract, and a customized blend of enzymes

EXPERIENCE

Slique CitraSlim is packaged in convenient dual-dose packets, so you can easily take them on the go. The capsules have a pleasant scent and a neutral taste. The liquid capsule and the powder capsules are easy for anyone to consume.

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

Young Living is constantly reviewing the latest science and looking for ways to improve. Our quest to find the most optimal formulations to bring you the very best product available to support your weight-management goals led us to a revolutionary new blend of citrus fruit extracts. This proprietary blend is formulated from Mediterranean citrus extracts, including sweet orange, blood orange, and grapefruit, which create a synergistic blend of bioactive polyphenols.

Studies suggest that the ingredients in Slique CitraSlim make it a more effective tool to help you meet your weight-management goals.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. Why did you reformulate Slique CitraSlim powder capsules?

A. At Young Living, we continuously strive to improve our products by using new technologies and better delivery systems to improve the efficacy and quality of our products. As soon as we found new scientific approaches that would increase the benefits of the Slique line, we immediately started working on their reformulation.

Q. Why does Slique CitraSlim only contain one oil capsule?

A. With the reformulation of the powder capsule and the use of the citrus-derived sinetrol, the most effective ratio for this new combination is one oil capsule instead of two.

Q. Are any Slique CitraSlim ingredients derived from corn, soy, dairy, or nuts? Is CitraSlim considered vegan or vegetarian?

A. Slique CitraSlim caps do not contain any corn, soy, dairy, or nut-derived ingredients. CitraSlim caps are considered both vegan and vegetarian.
