

PRODUCT SUMMARY

Slique® Shake is a complete meal replacement that provides quick, satisfying, and delicious nutrition. Formulated with Slique Essence essential oil blend, this shake may support healthy weight management when combined with regular exercise and a sensible diet.* In a convenient single-serving size packet, it's easy to slip into a purse or pocket for healthy eating on the go.

Slique Shake's berry flavor is great on its own or mixed with almond milk or fruit. This vegan formula contains no artificial colors, flavors, preservatives, or GMO ingredients. Slique Shake is sweetened with stevia, organic coconut palm sugar, wolfberries, and strawberries and uses pea protein, quinoa, wolfberry, pumpkin seed protein, and alfalfa grass juice—making it an excellent source of protein and dietary fiber. Slique Shake also includes a fruit and vegetable blend that provides essential vitamins and minerals that many meal replacement options don't offer.

KEY INGREDIENTS

Pea protein, quinoa, wolfberry, pumpkin seed protein, and alfalfa grass juice for vegan-friendly protein. Naturally derived B vitamins, including natural folate.

EXPERIENCE

Slique Shake is easy to mix in a shaker bottle or can be blended with fruit and other ingredients for a delicious smoothie. It has a mellow, light berry flavor and a smooth texture. As a complete meal replacement, this shake will leave you feeling full and satisfied.

PRODUCT BACKGROUND

Slique Shake was designed to be a vegan alternative to most protein shakes and meal replacements that use whey products for their protein source. Slique Shake relies entirely on plant-based ingredients such as pea protein and pumpkin seed protein for its 16 grams of protein and ingredients such as organic coconut palm sugar, wolfberries, and strawberries for its incredible flavor.
