

Collagen Peptide Serum

Product Size: 30 ml

Item No 50577

Take a firm stand for your skin and the planet. This serum visibly firms, brightens, and smooths with natural botanicals from farms that support reforestation and orchid conservation.

Powered by vegan collagen amino acids and peptides, sea fennel extract and DeepSpectra® boswellic acids, this hydrating facial serum visibly reduces the look of fine lines and promotes a firmer appearance, without irritation from harsh chemicals. It's also packed with antioxidants that help skin appear brighter and more supple. Sustainably sourced Royal Hawaiian Sandalwood^ and Ylang Ylang essential oils add skin-loving benefits while supporting reforestation efforts in Hawaii and native orchid conservation in Ecuador—because both you and the earth deserve to age beautifully.

Power Of Your Purchase

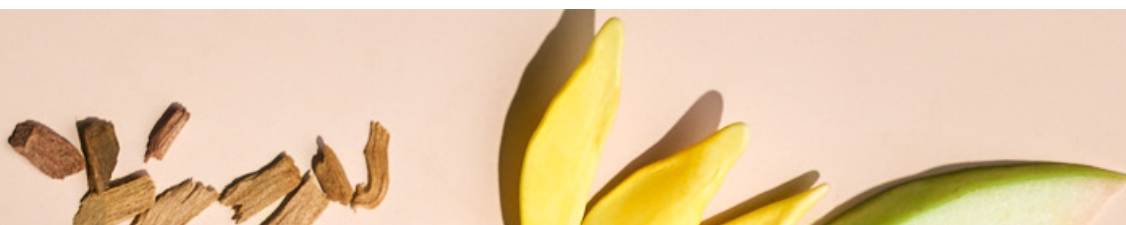

This serum does more than visibly smooth your skin—it makes a valuable contribution to ecosystems.

The Royal Hawaiian Sandalwood^ essential oil in this formula is responsibly sourced from the Kona Sandalwood Reforestation Project in Hawaii. At this partner farm, only dead wood is harvested—yielding a more potent oil—and sandalwood seedlings are planted to help rebuild native forests. Since the project started in 2010, millions of native Hawaiian trees have been planted.

The Ylang Ylang essential oil comes from our Finca Botanica Farm in Ecuador, where we've made it our mission to protect the region's fragile orchid population. Orchids make up nearly one-fourth of the plants in Ecuador, and 85 percent of them are classified as threatened. To help restore these beautiful species, our on-site orchidarium cultivates native orchids from both seeds and cuttings for reintroduction into protected forests.

Even our sea fennel is sustainably harvested from an organic source along the Atlantic coast, making this a smart, skin-loving, and earth-kind choice.

Collagen Peptide Serum

Hydrating Botanicals

A blend of watermelon, lentil, and apple extracts works alongside sunflower seed oil, sodium hyaluronate, and squalane to plump and hydrate the skin.

- Watermelon rind is one of nature's few materials to contain citrulline, which supports the skin's natural moisturising complex.
- Lentil extract is high in vitamin B5 and trisaccharides, which help retain moisture.
- Apple extract provides polysaccharides, sodium lactate, and sodium PCA for long-lasting hydration and added moisturising effect.

Together, these botanicals provide an instant boost of plumping hydration that lasts up to 24 hours.
