

Eucalyptus Radiata

Product Size: 15 ml

Item No. 33274

Like most species of eucalyptus, Eucalyptus radiata is native to Australia. A very large flowering tree in the myrtle family, Eucalyptus radiata produces fragrant leaves and is also known informally as narrow-leaved peppermint. With over 700 varieties of eucalyptus, this evergreen giant, reaching heights of over 300 feet, was historically recognised as the 'fever tree.' Among its many variations, Eucalyptus radiata stands out for its high eucalyptol content, offering a refreshing, camphoraceous aroma.

Experience the invigorating and cool essence of Eucalyptus Radiata, perfect for promoting clear breathing during the winter months. This slightly minty oil stimulates the senses, whether used in massages with your favourite carrier oil or added to body washes for a crisp and revitalising experience. Embrace its rejuvenating properties to revive your mind, body, and soul, leaving you feeling wonderfully fresh from head to toe. Eucalyptus Radiata essential oil is found in Young Living R.C.® and Thieves®.
