IF YOU DO NOT HAVE AN ABN: Until your income from YLEO reaches $15,000 during a financial year, YLEO regards you as not being 'in business for taxation purposes' and is not required to deduct withholding tax from your commissions. Once your income reaches this level, Australian tax law requires that companies withhold tax from all commission payments until an ABN/GST registration is supplied.

NB: This requirement does not apply to Companies or Trusts and we require ABN and GST status to be advised at the commencement of membership. All commission payments will be made payable to the membership name only and it is your responsibility to ensure you have suitable banking arrangements for the membership name.

IF YOU HAVE AN ABN, please complete every section. Any omission or errors could delay processing.
