- Please note, requesting a training room does not guarantee your reservation! Watch for an email from the Leadership Development Team (LDT) at ldt@youngliving.com that will prompt you to confirm and complete your booking. You can expect to receive this email within two business days.
- Brand partners booking during an evening or weekend will be required to pay at the Experience Centre when they arrive for their appointment via the accepted payment method set up on their account. Alternatively, payment can be made by credit card, debit card, or by cash payment.
- To confirm the reservation, the brand partner account will be reviewed to ensure they are in good standing in accordance with Young Living policies and procedures. If a booking is approved, the organizing brand partner will receive an email containing a copy of the AEC or OEC Training Room Agreement. The agreement must be signed and returned to Young Living Canada to confirm the booking. This process may take 1–2 business days.
