

PRODUCT SUMMARY

Formerly known as Idaho Balsam Fir, this Young Living fan favourite is back with a new name: Idaho Grand Fir! The oil, aroma and benefits are unchanged, offering a woody, refreshing aroma reminiscent of a freshly cut evergreen tree. We call it Idaho Grand Fir because ours comes from the Young Living Highland Flats Tree Farm in Naples, Idaho, where every year Young Living members participate in the annual Winter Harvest, allowing them to experience our Seed to Seal® quality commitment firsthand.

KEY INGREDIENTS

100 percent pure, Seed to Seal-certified Grand Fir essential oil from Idaho, USA

EXPERIENCE

Idaho Grand Fir has a woody, refreshing aroma that evokes nostalgia of smelling a freshly cut evergreen tree. It's like crisp, fresh, timeless mountain air in a bottle.

PRODUCT BACKGROUND

Idaho Grand Fir essential oil is steam distilled from the needles and branches of the grand fir trees grown at Young Living's Highland Flats Tree Farm and Distillery in Naples, Idaho. This tree is popularly used in the U.S. as a Christmas tree. It is one of the tallest fir species in the world.

Why change the name if the oil is the same? Until now the closest registered scientific name for the oil was Abies balsamea (Balsam Fir). Recently, however, the Personal Care Products Council approved the use of the scientific name Abies grandis (Grand Fir) for use on the label.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. Can Idaho Grand Fir be ingested?

A. Idaho Grand Fir is labelled for topical and aromatic use only and is not intended for internal consumption. Always follow individual label instructions for Young Living products.

Q. Does Idaho Grand Fir need to be diluted for topical application?

A. No, dilution is not required, except for the most sensitive skin. Use as needed.

Q. Is Idaho Grand Fir the same essential oil as Young Living's Idaho Balsam Fir that was sold in the past?

A. Yes, since the Grand Fir scientific name was approved for use on labels, the only differences between the two oils are the name on the front of the label and the scientific name listed as the ingredient. It is the same oil that was sold in the past under the name Idaho Balsam Fir.
