

PRODUCT SUMMARY

Combine the benefits of tea tree and the calming and soothing nature of lavender with Australian Ericifolia!

Just as Tea Tree is celebrated for its skin care benefits, Australian Ericifolia is also a great companion in caring for your skin. Add a few drops to your nightly beauty routine to help reduce the appearance of blemishes, or combine with Lavender and Rosemary for the appearance of healthy hair.

Want to enjoy Australian Ericifolia's fresh, sweet scent? Combine with Young Living V-6 and apply to your chest for a soothing aromatic experience, or add a refreshing twist to our Breathe Again Roll-On by combining it with Australian Ericifolia.

KEY INGREDIENTS

Melaleuca ericifolia essential oil

EXPERIENCE

Australian Ericifolia has a subtle aroma that blends the herbaceous, refreshing qualities of its cousin Tea Tree and the floral sweetness of Lavender. When diffused it boosts your every space.

PRODUCT BACKGROUND

Australian Ericifolia Oil is native to Tasmania and has a pleasantly woody, Australian bush scent with fresh sweet floral-herbaceous back notes. Harvested from wild crafted populations grown on Flinders Island—part of the Tasmanian archipelago of islands—this native botanical grows between 3–8 metres around the coastal areas and hilly slopes of this pristine island.
