share the joy of giving

This holiday season, we are partnering with Rags2Riches, a globally known fashion and design house that supports in-need Filipino community artisans. Their advocacy started when they met a community of women who earned a living through weaving rags from scrap fabric. Since then, they have been committed to their mission to lift Filipino artisans from poverty and to promote sustainability. Each R2R creation proves that style and sustainability can coexist in a masterpiece made with love, joy and hope.

With all the blessings we've been receiving, it's time to give back and empower more lives. Get this exclusive bundle of diffuser bag and Lemon essential oil for you or for those dear to you, and help the R2R communities to craft more "things that matter" and weave more joyful stories together.
