- Can I still change the package that I submitted through JotForm?
 - Yes. Upgrading to a higher package can be requested via email at custserv.ph@youngliving.com on or before March 20, 2025. All requests after this date will no longer be accommodated.
 - Opting for a lower package adjustment is not encouraged. If the host prefers to return the excess materials, the return shipment will be shouldered by the host. If the host decides to keep the materials—all excess materials, products, and freebies will be charged to their account. This will be done through account credits, card on file, or commission deduction.
 - The additional items for upgrades will be delivered during the week of March 24, before the YL Days event.
- My plans changed and I decided to do an online event instead of Face to Face, do I have to return the materials and gifts I have received?
 - Yes. The materials and gifts for face-to-face events are given to help the host/leader conduct a physical event. Changing the setup would defeat the purpose of giving out sample products and flyers/materials.
 - Hosts should pay for the shipping fee of returning the materials and ship it on or before April 5, 2025. Should the host fail to return the materials, we will charge the host's account through either account credits, card on file, or via deduction in commissions.

Example:

The host originally selected Package 1 but changed his/her mind and wanted to do an online event instead. Therefore, the host should return excess gifts delivered. If the host fails to return the items, then he/she will be charged with the amount of these items.

- Can I combine events with another host?
 - Yes. Hosts can combine events in a single venue. It is encouraged to have different attendees per event, to increase awareness among non-members.

Example: Host A selected Package 1 (at least 5 attendees) and Host D selected Package 2 (at least 10 attendees), the total number of unique attendees must be at least 15 people. And shall be segregated between the 2 hosts' attendance sheets.
