

CONSIGNMENT AUTHORIZATION AND RECOVERY AGREEMENT

Consignee Information

Member Name : _____
Member ID : _____
Mobile Number : _____
Email Address : _____

Consignment Details

Event Name : _____
Event Date : _____
Consignment Event Code : _____
Approved # of Kits : _____

I. Acknowledgement

This form is an integral part of the YLPH Consignment Program Guidelines (the "Program Guidelines") and shall be read together with the Program Guidelines.

I acknowledge that I have read, understood, and agree to comply with the YLPH Consignment Program Guidelines. I understand that all consigned PES Kits remain the property of Young Living Philippines LLC – Philippines Branch (the "Company") until properly liquidated or returned.

I further acknowledge that any unreturned, unliquidated, damaged, unpaid, or non-resalable consigned products shall be deemed sold to me, and I shall be liable for the corresponding outstanding balance in accordance with the Program Guidelines.

I acknowledge and agree that the outstanding balance shall be determined based on the Company's reconciliation records, liquidation records, return records, and inventory verification processes, and other records maintained in the ordinary course of business, absent manifest error.

I acknowledge that, the Company may temporarily retain all or part of my commissions and bonuses in connection with an approved consignment transaction until the liquidation process, return validation, if applicable, and reconciliation have been completed in accordance with the Program Guidelines.

II. Commission Retention and Recovery Authorization

I irrevocably authorize the Company to temporarily retain, and when applicable, recover any outstanding consignment obligation through one or more of the methods provided under the Program Guidelines.

I further authorize the Company to process and utilize my payment information, card information, commission records, and other account information necessary to implement the authorized recovery methods, subject to applicable laws, including the Data Privacy Act of 2012, and Company policies.

III. Authorized Recovery Methods (which may be applied individually, simultaneously, or in any order determined by the Company)

The Company may provide notice to the Consignee of any outstanding balance prior to implementing one or more recovery methods; provided, however, that failure to provide such notice shall not invalidate the Company's recovery rights under this Authorization.

1. Temporary retention of all or part of my commissions and bonuses until the Company completes the liquidation review, return validation, if applicable, and reconciliation
2. Application of any cash bond against the outstanding balance.
3. Deposit or encashment of any Post-Dated Check (PDC) provided.

4. Charge my registered card on file for any remaining outstanding consignment balance in accordance with the Program Guidelines.
5. Deduction of any outstanding consignment balance from any retained or future commissions and bonuses after completion of reconciliation.
6. Application of any credits, refunds, rebates, incentives, allowances, or other amounts payable by the Company to me.

IV. General Undertaking

- a. Participation in the Consignment Program is a privilege and not a right.
- b. I agree to comply with the Program Guidelines.
- c. I understand that failure to comply with the Program Guidelines, including failure to complete liquidation, return unsold products, or settle outstanding consignment obligations within the prescribed timelines, may result in the temporary retention of commissions, suspension or revocation of my consignment privileges, and other recovery actions available under the Program.
- d. I acknowledge and agree that, in the event of any unpaid consignment obligations, the Company reserves the right to pursue all available legal remedies to recover any outstanding consignment balances and to enforce the terms of the Program Guidelines.
- e. I acknowledge that any unreturned, unliquidated, damaged, opened, altered, expired, incomplete, or otherwise non-resalable consigned products may be deemed purchased by me at the prevailing selling price applicable on the date of consignment.
- f. I agree that the Company's exercise of any recovery method shall not limit its right to pursue additional recovery methods or legal remedies until the outstanding balance has been fully recovered.
- g. I waive any requirement for further authorization, approval, or instruction before the Company implements the recovery methods authorized under this Form solely for the purpose of recovering any outstanding obligations arising from the approved consignment transaction.
- h. I understand that any commissions temporarily retained by the Company shall be released upon completion of liquidation, return validation, if applicable, reconciliation, and settlement of any outstanding consignment obligations.

V. Continuing Authority

This Authorization shall remain valid and effective until all obligations arising from the approved consignment transaction, including any outstanding balances, have been fully settled.

This Authorization shall survive termination, suspension, revocation, expiration, or cancellation of my participation in the Consignment Program and shall remain binding until all obligations have been fully satisfied.

VI. Consent

By signing below, I confirm that I have voluntarily executed this form, have read and understood the Program Guidelines, and agree to be bound by their terms and conditions.

I further confirm that I have had the opportunity to review this Authorization, seek independent advice if desired, and voluntarily grant the authorizations contained herein.

Member Name : _____

Signature : _____

Date : _____