FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. Could Seedlings Linen Spray potentially stain fabrics?

A. Seedlings Linen Spray is fabric-safe and formulated without colorants or ingredients that typically cause staining. However, certain types of fabrics—such as silk—can be stained with water, which is an ingredient in this product. If you are concerned about staining, test the linen spray on an inconspicuous area before use.

Q. Can I spray Seedlings Linen Spray directly on my baby?

A. Seedlings Linen Spray is designed to be applied to fabrics, not directly sprayed on skin. If you would like to apply a Seedlings product directly to your baby's skin, we recommend Seedlings Baby Lotion or Baby Oil.

Q. Is Seedlings Linen Spray free from GMO ingredients?

A. Seedlings Linen Spray is formulated without GMO ingredients, but it has not been officially tested and certified as GMO-free.

Q. At what age can I start using Seedlings Linen Spray with my baby?

A. Seedlings Linen Spray can be used with babies of any age, including newborns. It can also be used by adults.
