QUALIFICATION

NEW DIAMOND RETREAT BRAND PARTNERS

New Diamond leaders can earn their spot on the Diamond Retreat by achieving the paid-as rank of Diamond, Crown Diamond, and/or Royal Crown Diamond for a minimum of three consecutive months (per rank) for the first time in their Young Living history within the qualification period (January 1–December 31 of a given year). *

RETURNING DIAMOND, CROWN DIAMOND, AND ROYAL CROWN DIAMOND BRAND PARTNERS

Brand partners who have met the “New Diamond Retreat Brand Partner” requirements for a past Diamond Retreat, and would like to attend the Diamond Retreat again, may choose to do so. Young Living will pay a percentage of the cost of the trip, including travel, for one Brand Partner per Diamond account & one qualified guest**, based on the number of months they have achieved the paid rank of Diamond or above during the qualification period. Please see the percentage breakdown on the next page. (This option is based upon retreat availability)

BUY-IN CREDITS FROM PANDEMIC YEARS:

Based on the constraints caused by the past 2-3 years with travel restrictions, Young Living will be tracking each time an Achieved Diamond has achieved the minimum requirement of paid rank of Diamond or above between February 2019 through December 2022. Each month qualified can be used as a “credit month” towards buy-in for the 2022, 2023, and 2024 Diamond Retreats. If you attended the Diamond Retreat in 2022 or 2023, a maximum of 12 “credit months” will be subtracted from your total to accommodate that trip and experience. Please note that these “month credits” are non-transferrable and expire after December 31, 2024.

BUY-IN SCENARIOS:

DIAMOND RETREAT FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

---

EVENT LOGISTICS

Q: Will there be a Diamond Retreat in 2024 and where will it be?

A: Yes, there will be a Diamond Retreat in 2024. It will be held April 15-20, in Okinawa, Japan.

Q: What airport do we fly into?

A: Naha Airport in Naha, Okinawa

Q: Where will accommodations be for Diamond Retreat 2024?

A: Hilton Okinawa Chatan Resort - 40-1 Mihama, Chatan, Nakagami District, Okinawa 904-0115, Japan

Q: Will we be using Christopherson Business Travel (CBT) for this retreat?

A: For this retreat, qualifying Brand Partners will have the option to book flights on their own and be reimbursed after the event, or they may choose to utilize CBT to arrange their travel accommodations. Reimbursement quotes will be defined based on your departure airport. The full quoted reimbursement amount will be paid regardless of the cost of the flight booked, whether it is more or less than the quote. After you check in at the event in April, you will automatically receive the exact amount quoted, for both you and your eligible guest, on your May commission check. Luggage allotments will be included in your reimbursed amount.

Q: Which class are the airfare tickets booked in?

A: All qualifiers will be booked with economy class flights. However, as a special thank you, if you've achieved the rank of Royal Crown Diamond at least one time in 2023 (the 2024 Diamond Retreat qualification period), you'll qualify for business-class flights for the 2024 Diamond Retreat.

QUALIFICATIONS

Q: I qualified for Diamond Retreat in 2020 and it was cancelled. It was also cancelled for 2021 and I was unable to travel in 2022 & 2023 due to flight restrictions. Can I attend the Diamond Retreat in 2024?

A: Yes! Young Living will be tracking each time a qualified Diamond Retreat account was paid as Diamond or above during each Diamond Retreat qualification period. Each month that a qualifier was paid as Diamond or above, during the qualification periods of the 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023 & 2024 Retreats, can be used as a "credit month" towards buy-in for Diamond Retreat. If you have more than 12-credit months, any additional credits will rollover into the 2025 Diamond Retreat. All unused buy-in credits will expire after December 31, 2025.

Q: What if I was paid as a Diamond or above before, but this is my first-time achieving Diamond or above for three consecutive months?

A: Though you have previously reached and been paid at the rank of Diamond, you are invited to attend based on the first time you qualify as a Diamond for three consecutive months. For example, Jane advanced to Diamond for the first time in September 2019; however, she did not achieve three consecutive months as a Diamond until February, March, and April 2023. Because she achieved three consecutive months as a Diamond for the first time during the 2024 Diamond Retreat qualification period, she would be invited as a new Diamond Retreat qualifier to the 2024 Diamond Retreat.

Q: What if my three consecutive qualifying months do not all fall within the qualification period?

A: You will be invited to attend a retreat based on the qualification period in which your third qualifying month falls. For example, George advanced to Diamond in November 2022. He was then paid as a Diamond again in December 2022 and January 2023. Because his third consecutive month of Diamond falls within the 2024 qualification period, he would be invited as a new Diamond Retreat qualifier to the 2024 Diamond Retreat, even though his first two months occurred in the previous qualification period.

Q: What rank will I be recognized as during the Diamond Retreat?

A: You will be recognized based on your highest achieved rank during the Retreat.

Q: What if I want to bring my co-applicant or another guest?

A: Only one Brand Partner, per account, can qualify to attend, but you can bring a co-applicant or business partner as your guest. *

*Qualified guests must be at least 18 years old to attend.

Q: May I bring an infant with me to the Diamond Retreat?

A: Attendees are permitted to bring an infant within nursing age. Attendees must pay any extra costs associated with bringing their infant. Please get approval from the Events team prior to registration.

Q: May I bring my children as additional guests?

A: Young Living is a family company, and as such, we understand that Brand Partners may want to bring children to the retreat. Please know that while this is allowed, Young Living will not provide excursions, meals, accommodations (including the potential need for additional hotel rooms or cabins), transportation, or day care for children. In addition, children or additional guests will not be permitted to attend any event functions during the retreat. Please get approval from the Events team prior to registration.
