

Where can I find more information about hosting an event at the Young Living Lavender Farm?

Visit our website at YoungLiving.com/LavenderFarmEvents to read about events that you may hold at the farm, browse our various rental packages, and request a reservation. If you have any questions or would like to speak with our event specialist, please contact Shandy Davies; sdavies@youngliving.com (801) 899-4671.

How do I reserve the farm for my event?

You can request a reservation for the farm by visiting Lavender Farm Event page at YoungLiving.com/LavenderFarmEvents. You can read more about the farm, browse our various rental packages, and request a reservation.

What types of events can I hold at the farm?

Our farm hosts weddings, company retreats, family parties, reunions, and more! Our farm has a beautiful natural setting and is well outfitted for large or small groups, making it adaptable to a variety of occasions.

Are there any event packages available?

Yes. To help accommodate the individual needs of your special event, we have prepared various affordable event packages. View the details of each package by visiting YoungLiving.com/LavenderFarmEvents and looking for the "Event Packages and Pricing" tab.

What accommodations are available at the farm?

The lavender farm has various areas to stage your event: gorgeous fields of lavender and other botanicals, a spacious gazebo, a Medieval Village Inn, a show barn, and lots of beautiful, grassy lawns for your guests to enjoy. For seating and food preparations, we also have tables and chairs, kitchen access, and a walk-in cooler. Give your party a jolt of fun with a bounce house, children's medieval rides, a rock-climbing wall, and various concession amenities. With so many options, you'll have plenty of ways to please your invitees.

Am I required to use vendors from Young Living's preferred vendors list?

No. We offer our list of preferred vendors because we have found that they provide reliable, quality service. However, you may use any vendor of your choosing to provide food, flowers, and photography at your event.

Are there any other fees in addition to the event package price? The $250 non-refundable reservation deposit and $100 refundable cleaning deposit are included in the price of each event package, so there are no additional fees.

Where is the farm located?

The Young Living Lavender Farm is conveniently located near I-15 at 3700 North Highway 91, Mona, Utah 84645—Exit 233 northbound and Exit 242 southbound.

Is parking available at the farm?

There is parking space directly next to the farm for over 100 vehicles. If additional parking is needed, please check with the Visitors Center manager for arrangements.

What is the farm's guest capacity?

Our farm can accommodate groups of fewer than 10 to more than 1,000 people. With multiple bathrooms, various hosting buildings, and grassy lawns, the farm can hold almost any group size.

Does the farm have any prohibited items or any rules or regulations I should know about? Our farm rules and regulations are as follows: 1. No alcohol, smoking, or fireworks are permitted on the farm. 2. Trash and litter must be cleaned up and disposed of before leaving the farm grounds. Garbage receptacles will be placed throughout the farm. If trash, litter, or food items are left on the farm, you will forfeit your cleaning deposit. 3. Kitchens, walk-in coolers, and event space must be cleaned before leaving the farm and checked by your assigned farm contact to receive your cleaning deposit. If you leave without contacting your farm contact, you will forfeit your cleaning deposit. 4. Any accidents or property damage must be reported to your assigned farm contact. If he/she is unavailable, please see the Visitors Center manager. 5. Parents are responsible for their children at all times. 6. The Young Living Visitors Center will stay open to the public during regular posted hours.
