

LEMON VERBENA

5 ml Item No. 32013

Brighten your day with Lemon Verbena! With an aroma that purifies your environment and invigorates your senses, it sends you to sunlit fields of lemon bliss. Renowned in the fragrance and tea industries, this fresh, uplifting, citrus-herbal aroma actually comes from a fragrant shrub, not a citrus fruit. Use this bright, zesty essential oil as a personal or home fragrance, to cleanse the skin and pamper it with antioxidants, or as a midday pick-me-up.

Young Living is proud to offer only pure Lemon Verbena essential oil produced with our Seed to Seal® quality commitment. Because the plant yields very little oil, many essential oils marketed as Lemon Verbena are adulterated and blended with other oils or additives to increase the amount in a bottle. Not from us; we offer you only pure essential oils for your pure lifestyle.

PRODUCT BACKGROUND

Lemon Verbena essential oil is produced by steam distilling the feather-shaped leaves of this flowering shrub, which has fragrant, lilac-colored flowers. Its distinct aroma was first documented in 1767 in Buenos Aires, Argentina. The plant was historically used to make a cleansing tea in South America and is renowned in the fragrance industry and used in many perfumes, soaps, and beauty products. Lemon Verbena is also used in the culinary world in some teas, ice creams, cakes, fruit syrups and spritzers, and as a seasoning for fish.
