

MEGACAL

Item No. 27206

MegaCal™ is Young Living's mega-delicious powdered drink mix that's mega-rich in calcium! Not all calcium supplements are created equal, especially when so many use synthetic and unnatural formulas and fillers. Every serving of MegaCal contains 210 mg of both calcium and magnesium that are naturally derived from seawater and limestone. We've also reformulated it so your body can better absorb the calcium, which supports optimal bone health, vascular health, and normal nerve function. Infused with our pure essential oils backed by our Seed to Seal® quality commitment, MegaCal also features an improved lemon-lime flavor. Get the calcium your body needs in one easy drink mix that's vegetarian, dairy free, gluten free, soy free, and non-GMO.

MEGACAL

PRODUCT BACKGROUND

MegaCal is a powerful combination of calcium, magnesium, and other vitamins. Young Living takes pride in sourcing ingredients the natural way, with magnesium sourced from seawater and limestone. The calcium is also naturally sourced from limestone. Its delicious flavor comes from Lemon essential oil sourced from South Africa and Argentina and Lime essential oil sourced from Mexico, both backed by Young Living's Seed to Seal quality commitment. Maintain those calcium levels so your body can maintain strong bone health and normal nerve functions with MegaCal.
