

New Year Kickoff FAQ

What is the 2020 New Year Kickoff?

Make 2020 your year of transformation. Be part of Young Living's New Year Kickoff on January 18 to get the tools you need to reach your biggest goals. We have transformed our January Live Your Passion Rally to put the focus on meaningful change, so we're starting the new year—and the new decade—with growth opportunities like you've never seen. Prepare for new products, new business-building tools, new ways to support your goals, and much, much more!

At New Year Kickoff events around the United States, Young Living members and potential members will come together to learn, to be empowered, and to find tools that will help them take their momentum through the upcoming year.

The event typically begins with a celebration of individual and team successes and features a video with key announcements.

Why should I attend this meeting?

By attending New Year Kickoff 2020, you'll have the opportunity to participate in an event with other Young Living members and leaders throughout the United States. You will also hear exciting announcements and get tools to help you reach personal and business goals and see what we have in store for the next few months!

You'll also be able to make new connections and friendships, strategize ways to achieve your goals, receive training, and have the time to collaborate with your teams and other members.

How do I register to attend an event?

Click here for more details on how to register, where other events are being held, and other details.

When should the meetings be held?

There are no time restrictions for this meeting. Any time—morning, afternoon, or evening—on the day of the event will work. If members cannot hold the meeting on that date, then nearby dates can work as well, as long as they're after January 18. We encourage members to hold the event at the time that works best for their team. Keep in mind that the longer you wait after the event date, the more likely it is that announcements and other exciting information and materials will have already reached your audience.

Who can host a New Year Kickoff event?

All Young Living members are eligible and encouraged to host their own New Year Kickoff event!

What are the expectations if I host a meeting?

Meeting length: The videos and materials Young Living provides will run 30-60 minutes long. In some cases, especially when members have traveled far distances, the host may want to take advantage of the time the group has together and spend it setting goals, sharing best practices, focusing on training, or participating in other business-related activities. The average meeting time is about two hours, but it's ultimately up to the host.

What is expected: The event can be in an elaborate or simple location—anywhere that works for your group. Regardless of the venue, here are some items you can include at your event to excite your audience:

- Recognize the achievements of those who are attending the event.
- Provide music to create an exciting atmosphere and introduce live presenters.
- Share success stories and testimonials about the business and the products.
- Create a theme to make things fun or to set the stage for theme-centered team goals in the next quarter.
- Offer icebreaker topics, round-table discussions, team-building exercises, or other ways to help members interact.
- Have a giveaway with your favorite products.
- Bring supplies and do a DIY project with your team. Find some great DIY projects on the Young Living blog, The Lavender Life!

What do I need to do to host an event, and what can I expect as a host?

There are no requirements for you to host a New Year Kickoff event other than registering your event and reporting registration lists. This ensures that all attendees can participate in New Year Kickoff-specific promotions.

To host a New Year Kickoff, please do the following:

- Submit your request to the corporate office before January 8 using this link: https://www.youngliving.com/en_US/company/events/featured-events/new-year-

kickoff-2020

- As the event date gets closer, we will connect with you via email. Please add usevents@youngliving.com to your email contacts to ensure that you receive our communications. Also check out the New Year Kickoff landing page and Virtual Office for promotional materials that you can share on social media and downloadable event banners that you can print.
- By January 13, all event hosts will receive an email with the corporate videos to supplement their presentations.

Should members join forces with other members to make their meeting more impactful?

Yes! Partnering with other members in the area is a great way to make meetings more impactful. Combining the experience and success of multiple teams in a local market creates a powerful energy. There's strength in numbers, and the more people who come together to learn and take action, the better! Whenever possible, we strongly recommend collaborating with other members of the Young Living tribe!

Should member hosts invite prospective members?

Definitely! While this meeting is intended for those already part of Young Living, there's plenty of great content for someone who is considering joining a team. This meeting is a great opportunity for people to learn about the Young Living culture, products, and business opportunity.

If member hosts plan to do a formal opportunity meeting for their prospects, they should make sure to take a break between meetings to sample products.

Will any members of the corporate team be in attendance?

Given the number of events hosted throughout the country, it is not possible for our executive team to attend every event. The U.S. Leadership team will be attending some events. If you would like to request attendance from a member of our team, please submit a request here: <https://form.jotform.com/73136694463160>. Please know that if we cannot make it to your event you still have the full support of Young Living's executive team as you host your event!

What should the format of a New Year Kickoff meeting be?

Members should use the sample meeting agenda as a guideline for the meeting. Content that is not provided by Young Living should be filled in by the host according to what they feel would best benefit the members in attendance. The host can choose whatever activities they think would supplement the meeting, but some ideas include strategizing, goal-setting, skill development training, or developing product knowledge.

How much will this meeting cost?

This meeting shouldn't cost members very much if they search for inexpensive meeting options. Host members should look for low-cost meeting areas or free spaces where they can hold their meeting. Locations that require only a small donation—such as school auditoriums, churches, or gymnasiums—are good options. If the group is small enough, hosting the event in a member's home or backyard would be fine as well. Again, partnering with other members in the area can also help reduce costs.

How much should host members charge their guests?

If there is a need to charge a fee for the meeting to offset venue costs, let Young Living know during registration. Members should select a fee amount that will help them pay for the costs to rent a meeting space. This is intended to offset costs and not intended for profit.

How many people should host members invite to their event?

Host members should start inviting people now and invite as many as they want. Hosts can determine the number of people to invite based on their desires and the venue capacity. The group could be as small as 4-5 people or as large as 2,000! Members should use Facebook, Twitter, or other social media sites to promote their event and track the number of registrants, using the hashtag #YLUlites. Eventbrite, Evite, and Constant Contact are also great options. Young Living will promote the registered events that are open to members in the event's area.

Will there be a sales table at New Year Kickoff?

Winter weather makes it difficult to ensure that products arrive on time for these events. Rather than risk the possibility of shipments not arriving due to weather, we are excited to offer discounted pricing on product bundles during the event, which will be available in your Virtual Office. We will send information on products and bundles before your event.
