

Product Summary

Xiang Mao is a rapid-growing, aromatic clump grass that can grow up to 6 feet tall. Young Living's Xiang Mao essential oil, commonly known as red lemongrass, is an organic essential oil that is distilled from the Xiang Mao grass that is grown on the mountain slopes by the Paiwan aboriginal tribe in southeastern Taiwan. The Paiwan community, known as "Big Bird," cooperates with Dr. Ginn Le of the Young Living partner farm in Taiwan to supply this exclusive essential oil. Xiang Mao is translated as "aromatic grass for rapid enlightenment." Xiang Mao was traditionally used to freshen household air, enlighten the mind, and moisten the skin. It was also used in folk medicine for its calming effects and to promote relaxation.
