

CELEBRATING SUCCESS

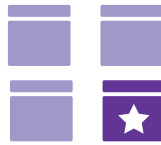

Young Living members change the world by sharing the gift of pure, authentic essential oils. The hard work and effort you put into achieving rank deserves recognition throughout the company.

As you rise in rank, your efforts are highlighted on different platforms, including at the International Grand Convention, YoungLiving.com, The Essential Edge News, and Grow! Essential News.

Here's how the recognition system works:

Qualify for a new,
higher rank for three consecutive months.

Receive recognition from YL on the fourth month.

Maintain your new rank
by achieving that rank
again at least once in the next six months

Qualifying for a rank: Achieving a rank for three consecutive months

Maintaining a rank: Achieving a rank at least once within six months of qualifying for the rank

To achieve recognition for a new rank, you must qualify for that rank for three consecutive months. You will be recognized at the new, higher rank beginning in the fourth month. To maintain that rank, you must achieve that rank again at least once within six months of the last month in which you qualified for that rank.

If you fail to achieve that rank within six consecutive months, you will be recognized at the highest paid rank for which you have achieved during that six-month period, and you will be required to requalify for the lost rank(s) before you can be recognized at that rank again. Requalification for a lost rank(s) includes achieving the lost rank(s) for three consecutive months before receiving recognition.
