Soak up the good vibes with YL's exclusive Vitality Drops +Energy powered by Guarana Vida™, Young Living's exclusive naturally sourced caffeine blend made from Brazilian guarana seed extract and green tea. A unique feature of guarana seeds is that they contain molecules called tannins, which can cause caffeine to release slowly, for a natural, longer-lasting effect. Up your daily water intake by adding some flavor to your hydration with these refreshing, flavorful, easy-to-use, on-the-go, sugar-free water enhancers. With 20 mg of naturally derived, plant-based caffeine per serving, these drops give you a natural, crash-free pick-me-up throughout the day to encourage you to drink more and stay hydrated. Not all caffeine is created equal, which is why Guarana Vida™ was formulated free of synthetic ingredients or dyes with an optimal level of caffeine, so you can enjoy it multiple times a day knowing this product comes from Mother Nature herself.

The Spearmint Tangerine +Energy drops feature Young Living's pure Spearmint Vitality™ essential oil. Our pure Tangerine Vitality™ essential oil adds a bright, citrus, and fruity profile to this minty flavor. While similar products on the market contain synthetic chemicals such as sucralose, aspartame, and artificial colors, Young Living's Vitality Drops +Energy are naturally derived. With naturally derived ingredients, sugar-free flavoring, and a convenient container, these drops are an absolute must-have addition to your hydration game.

YL Vitality Drops +Energy

SPEARMINT TANGERINE

PRODUCT BACKGROUND

Guarana is a shrub native to Brazil and other regions of the Amazon. While these seeds are about the size of coffee beans, they actually contain more than twice as much caffeine. Guarana has been traditionally consumed by indigenous communities of the Amazon region for centuries. The guarana extract is produced from seeds that are harvested from small farms in Brazil, which helps provide an additional source of income to these families. When the guarana seed extract is paired with naturally sourced caffeine from green tea, it creates Young Living's exclusive powerhouse Guarana Vida™ caffeine blend, giving you clean caffeine backed by nature.
