DUTIES and TAXES

When you import goods, you are required to specify the Customs value on the import entry clearance. This is important as the rate of duty will be charged based on the valuation you provide.

The usual method for establishing the Customs value is by using the transaction value, which may include freight and insurance costs incurred in transporting the good to NZ

Duties charged for Skin Care, Cosmetics, Perfume and food is approximately 5%

Goods and services tax (GST) of 15% percent is also charged.

If the amount to be paid to Customs is under $60, this will be waived, but if it's more than $60, you'll have to pay any duty and GST.

If your goods are valued at over NZ$1,000, you will need a client code and a supplier code. These are unique numbers that identify you, as the importer, and also your supplier.
