

Abundance

Essential Oil Blend

Product size: 15ml Item No. 330038

Abundance is a manifesting blend that helps you attract wealth and health in your life. Eight essential oils are combined to create an aroma that enhances the frequency of the energy field. When you are stimulated through aroma in your thought process, the frequency—called the electrical field or the aura—creates what is called the law of attraction. To simplify, smell Abundance essential oil blend and think about abundance. This may bring about abundance both physically and emotionally. We like this blend to bring joy, positivity, attraction, energy, good feelings, wealth, and wellness.

Young Living Founder D. Gary Young's intent in creating this blend was to reduce poverty consciousness. It is a great blend to support those who struggle and worry about money and choose to manifest wealth. Gary would sprinkle this blend on his keyboard in the office and the phones would ring with people desiring more Young Living essential oils!
