Measurement results

Reactions to aromas are sorted into the following eight categories and given a numeric value corresponding to their intensity. The higher the value, the more intense the reaction.

- |                   |  |
|-------------------|--|
| 1 . Clarity       | ••• Aroma clears my mind. I can mentally organize and free myself of emotional and intellectual clutter.               |
| 2 . Concentration | ••• Aroma increases my ability to concentrate and focus.   |
| 3 . Energy        | ••• Aroma enhances my energy level. I feel motivated.  |
| 4 . Relaxation    | ••• Aroma relaxes me. I can feel the tension melt away.  |
| 5 . Refreshing    | ••• Aroma refreshes me. I can get a break [from whatever I was doing or whatever was bothering me] and feel refreshed. |
| 6 . Sleepiness    | ••• Aroma helps me fall asleep. I feel fully relaxed and renewed.  |
| 7 . Familiarity   | ••• I know this aroma and use it a lot; my brain it used to it, so it doesn't evoke a positive response.               |
| 8 . Low reaction  | ••• Aroma does nothing for me or I don't like it; there is low reaction from my brain.                                 |
